

OTN

Old Timers' News

Journal of the Radio Amateurs Old Timers Club Australia Inc

Number 67

March 2021

Contents

RAOTC general information	2
From the committee	3
From the editor	3
From our members	4
OTN Stewart Day Award 2020	5
The Junker Morse key 1931 - 2014	6
The Hermannsburg transmitter used a Ford Model T coil	9
James Russell Goding VK3DM	10
My time in the Adelaide University Radio Club	13
A cautionary tale about licence renewal	14
No roses on a sailor's grave	15
Secret wireless intercept war	17
A hot, handy hint for the workshop	22
The many faces of MV Tjitjalengka	23
Recollections of Ash Wednesday	26
An eye-catching replica	27
Wairakei Geothermal Power Station in ZL	28

New RAOTC members	29
Silent keys	29
RAOTC members list	30
MEMS technology - a rapidly growing industry	33
A Swedish beauty	37
Visit to the Museum of Flight, Boeing Field, Seattle	39
VK2CF - from my first station to my last	41
My electronics journey and radio station 3MA Mildura	43
The Essendon Airport water tower	46
The Siemens brothers	47
Magnetos and their uses	49
International Message Relay System Centre	51
Dangers of electro-magnetic fields	54
Where is Gordon VK4KAL?	57
A sweet little Bakelite Morse key	58
Melbourne March 2021 luncheon notice	60
Is your RAOTC membership renewal due?	60